

KADET

1959

FOREWORD

May this chronicle of people, fellow-cadets, places and events serve as a lifetime reminder, a keepsake, of some treasured, though difficult, days at Peacock.

YOUR KADET STAFF

John Siemens, James Lumpkin, James Kenney, and William Hale.

Bayonet Practice—"On Guard."

Hand to hand combat—
Someone gets hurt?

Close Wedge approaches.

First (and last) Aid to the injured!

TACTICAL PLATOON

A briefing on Woodlawn Lake Shores.

"They went thataway!"

The original creep!

"Wait for me!"

"We won!"

"I got shot right here!"

"Turtle-hunting?"

Colonel Darrah leads the critique.

CAMP BULLIS

On the Firing Line—Prone.

"Squeeze that trigger."

"Yes, a south-paw can shoot an M-1."

"Mark Number 12 again."

"Now watch this rapid fire, gentlemen."

"You clean your messkits over there."

"Which one of you guys is on range detail?"

Breaking off for chow.

"Mark 'em."

Even the Colonels were KPs.

All the comforts of home.

At least one lieutenant didn't get well

FIESTA DRESS PARADE

Their Royal Highnesses arrive on Parade Ground.

"Officers front and center."

Royalty and distinguished guests salute the colors as they pass in review.

King Antonio awards Cavalier Medal to Battalion Commander James Kenney.

Queen of Munich (Germany) Festival "decorates" Colonels Wesley and Donald.

BATTLE OF FLOWERS PARADE

Captain Kenney and his Staff lead the Battalion of Cadets down Houston Street after an hour's wait (or was it four?). The Color Guard—and then "A" Company.

Our snappy Drum and Bugle Corps really did a good job in setting a fine cadence for that long march of three (30) miles. Then "B" Company.

RIFLE TEAM

ALL EXPERT RIFLEMEN—TOP ROW: Brownfield, Robertson C., Johnson W., Gorman, McCarrell, Christmas, Scoggins D., Mayfield J. BOTTOM: Anderson R., Siemens, Kenney, Gassloff, Reeves, and Garza G.

"JUNIOR MACS"

As understudies to the McKinnon Rifles, these underclassmen are crack drillers too. William Mayfield, leader; Ted Weggover, assistant; Charles Hunt, guidon.

FEDERAL INSPECTION

U. S. Fourth Army Officers wait on Senior Terrace for battalion to form.

Captain Kenney and Staff ready to take command.

The corps of cadets march to parade ground.

Drum and Bugle Corps troops the line.

Major General L. S. Griffing and other inspecting officers return salute of troops.

McKinnon Rifles demonstrate close order drill.

Inspecting officers and Academy staff await formation for inspection.

Colonel Darrah gives instructions to Cadet Captain Kenney.

"Tell me about your drum, Cadet McNeel."

"What is the name of this weapon, Cadet Siemens?"

The Color Guard is interrogated also.

Colonels Reed and Kern inspect the Army.

First Aid class. We demonstrate the simple fracture splint.

Poor guy! He'll never look the same!

Take a breath—and hold it!

Proper position at the prone.

"Sir, the muzzle velocity is, is,—"

"And this, gentlemen, is a road intersection."

FIELD AND AWARDS DAY

Battalion Staff leads Grand Entry past reviewing stand.

Followed by the Field Music.

Zouaves compose Color Guard, bearing the "Six Flags of Texas."

Junior Mace were the coolest in attire.

A line of buglers pull a fancy one.

McKinnon Rifles prepare to render salute.

Something new in circular bell-lines!

Decorated ones, front and center!

General Crowther presents General Birkhead award to Captain James Kenney.

General Phelps Award presented by his son, Major Phelps, to Captain Robert Scoggins.

Mr. Joe Bettencourt's medal directly to Captain Robert Bostick.

Almaus Henry Weiner makes presentation of Legion award to Lieut. Jack Gorman.

Some "reminders" by Coach Snowden between halves.

Coach Cortez repairs a weak ankle.

SOME GOOD CO-CAPTAINS

LYNN HOOPER, back

SYDNEY PAREDES, tackle

RAYMOND RIGBY, back

BOBBY BROWN, back

CLE LOSOYA, tackle

FOOTBALL CAMP (Before and At)

Lining up for equipment.

Shaw gets his.

And tries on helmet.

We scrimmage with Comfort (High School).

"X-1" takes a breather.

"X-2" puts on orange slip-overs.

Two colonels and tripples look on.

Yes, it was hot and dry that day!

We sweat it out in the shade!

PEACOCK VS. ST. LOUIS

Pep Squad greet players to field.

Official explains ground rules to captains.

And Browne is off round left end.

Fans and Squad give sideline encouragement.

Shaw makes good gain with sneak play.

Hooper stops one on the line.

And later carries for a good gain.

Four cadets stop him on sideline.

Another touchdown, Peacock!

PEACOCK VS. SCHREINER

On the field.

Limbering up.

Randol carries on a quick-opener.

Sideline quarterbacks.

Yea! Green!

Shaw gets loose for a TD.

Norman leads the pack at a fast clip.

PEACOCK VS. ST. GERARD

"Football Parents" assemble on porch of Mess Hall and eat supper with cadets.

Rigby escorts mother through Pep Squad line.

Browne W. and his folks, too.

Show pins corsage on mother.

Dads with numbers corresponding with sons, sit on sidelines.

It was a dark, stormy, and MUDDY night!

Yes, what a night!

And we lost.

CHEERLEADERS

The KADETS cheerleaders were ably assisted by four charming co-eds from St. Mary's Hall: Donna Peacock, Jean McCurdy, Bebe Allen, and Lana Traeger. Boys backing them: Dick Reeves, Mike Hale, Danny Perugini, and Robert Hart.

PEP SQUAD DRILL TEAM

The Pep Squad and Band together helped make each game a worthwhile contest.

Bonfire and Rally

before IWI game.

"B" TEAM FOOTBALL

Bishop carries around right end.

Edwards C. bucks line for good gain.

Kader rooters enjoy social break between the halves.

Co-eds listen to Mike Halo.

"Coach, why can't I go in now?"

Brick wall, we hope.

Some cool, interested spectators.

Coach Williams and alternate unit.

Visiting cheerleaders whoop it up!

"C" TEAM FOOTBALL

TOP: Thompson, manager; Fitch, Wilson R., Richards J., Stone, Daughtry, Vlieger, Ross, Lt. Kistner, coach.
MIDDLE: Crawshaw, Douglas, Harvey, Novarez, Hansen, Hulsey. BOTTOM: Weiss, Mathieson, Ruiz, Burchfield, Waggoner T., Youngblood, and Mayfield W.

Stone takes one over the shoulder.

"Now, boys, here's what we must do this next half."

Into the secondary; stop him!

That tall guy got loose!

Looks like a follow-the-leader pile-on.

Going wide around left end.

Someone is standing up too high.

Daughtry gets loose for long gain.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

TOP ROW: Manager Olinger, Garcia G., Rose, Hughs, Klutz, Foster, Manager Cuellar. BOTTOM ROW: Coach Cortez, Shew, Losoya, Rigby, McNutt, Pena, Reeves.

McNutt scores with a lay-up.

Hughs takes a rebound.

Scramble under the basket.

Coach lays out new strategy for second half.

Klutz makes a free throw.

Lesoya jumps with a high one.

McNutt tries a high looper.

Yes, it is getting dark! Where's the ball?

"B" TEAM BASKETBALL

"C" TEAM BASKETBALL

Ruiz is not quite tall enough.

Hunt is closely guarded.

Grant and a one-hand push shot.

"Now see, boys, it's like this."

Mayfield W. makes a free throw.

Jump, Hunt, Jump!

GYMKHANA DAY

Wheelbarrow Race

Three-legged Race

At start of 100-yard dash.

Near finish, barefoot boys lead.

The high point winners—Juniors.

The runner-up Class—Seniors.

Luzius does kangaroo hop in Sack Race.

The Sophs out-tug the Frosh.

Juniors win over Seniors in tug-of-war.

"Barrel" Barrow is really a cut-up.

Col. Richardson presents trophy to winning class president, Mike Hale of Juniors.

Quartette of smiling winners.

SLAVE DAY

A novel idea was introduced this year. A Slave Day, sponsored by the members of the Letterman's Club, was held. The members of the Letterman's Club auctioned themselves as slaves to the highest cadet (or teacher) bidder. These slaves performed many tasks throughout the day for their cadet-owners as pictured here. The money raised was used for the purchase of new athletic equipment.

Coach Snowden auctions off Dick Anderson. "What am I bid for this strong, healthy lad?"

"I'll bid two dollars!"

Signing up, paying up as owners.

How's this for service? Brano's a real waiter.

Losoya serves as shine-boy for Autobee.

Our senior cadet serves the littlest.

Col. Cole receives greeting from "Chop-chop" boy.

Joe Cloud's slave performs valet service.

Cut them up in small pieces, please.

Lettermen's Club officers: Randol, Losoya, Hooper, Rigby, and Browne W., president.

Rigby demonstrates use of first purchase by club with "slave day" money—whirlpool bath.

AMERICAN LEGION DECLAIMERS

Annual contest sponsored by Business and Professional Men's Post of San Antonio: Col. Barragan congratulates winner Robert Bostick. Second, Gallagher; third, Cuellar. Others competing: Roberts and Lewis. Col. Richardson, faculty sponsor.

WESTERN DANCE

Daisy Dosey and away we gosey.

It was a hot, but rainy night, otherwise we would have danced outdoors.

Even the jitterbugs were there.

Some gentlemen wore hats.

Some of the better-dressed cowboys and their gals.

MINSTREL SHOW

Interlocutor Bostick and Company lead the audience in a song fest.

Later, he strums the geevah and sings a la Elvis.

The soft-shoe quartette with hard hats.

The mambo trio (Cade, Gassloff, Nieto).

Norman is real gone with his slim, silent siren.

Quiet, please. There's more to come.

Two tars—one a little seasick.

The Trinidad Trio (Garcia, McNeel, Nieto).

Some Harlem Harmony (?)

Apparently, Browne W. and Wilson A. don't care for those jailhouse blues—as drummed by Skippy C.

Some questions and answers by Bostick and Browne.

The entire cast closes as it began—with a song.

PEP RALLIES

Cheerleader Hart pops it up on Main terrace before Shertz-Cibola game.

At the game, with kickoff, we offer a thumbs-down prayer (?)

Rose and his drummers lead Kadets on field.

Some g.f.s. join us at TME rally.

Who's to give the next pep talk?

It's Coach Snowden at the mike.

FOOTBALL DANCE

The mess hall takes on some gridiron decorations.

Two couples monopolize the orchestra corner.

Co-captains Rigby and Peredes surprise coaches with gifts from the team.

Col. Richardson presents gold football charms to our girl cheerleaders.

Pete Brewer's orchestra songstress croons.

During intermission we promenade in the cool of the evening!

CHRISTMAS PLAY

(Produced by Seventh Grade Class, Mrs. Vera Richardson, sponsor)

Based on the story "Twas the Night Before Christmas," Professor Moore is persuaded to read his poem.

The cast: Harvey, Isherwood, Mathieson (with turkey), Longoria T., Ahlgren, Fitch, and Weiss.

The principals, Prof. Moore and wife (Isherwood and Mathieson).

"Afsket, atasket, what's in the basket?"

"Button your coat, professor, it's cold outside."

"Look out the window, auntie."

CHRISTMAS DANCE

At Oak Hills Country Club.

Some distinguished guests consent to pose for the photographer.
