FOREWORD

And now we present the 1960 Kader, starring the Corps of Cadets of Peacock Military Academy. We, the annual staff, sincerely hope you enjoy this memory of a year-long presentation. As you look through this book, remember. . .

DEDICATION

COLONEL GEORGE M. COLE

As a small token of our gratitude for his untiring service as a teacher of Military Science and the Science of Mathematics, for his superb example of an educated man and a gentleman, for his undying support of the Varsity teams, and for being such a true friend to every cadet, we, the Annual Staff, humbly dedicate the 1960 KADET to Col. George M. Cole PMS/T.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

To the Cadets of 1960:
Another school year has ended; another yearbook is published. May the former prove to be satisfying and fruitful; may the latter bring to mind only those pleasant and profitable experiences we wish to cherish a lifetime.

We wish for each of you much happiness, health and success in your further educational journey.

SENIORS' LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of 1960, being of sound mind and questionable knowledge, in the presence of respectable witnesses, hereby on this date of May 27, 1960, affix our sign and seal to this document, and identify it as our last will and testament:

First, we relinquish all claim to the title of "Honorable Seniors" but only on the one condition that we always be remembered as such;

Second, we leave our class picture hanging in the hall of Johnston Hall, to be cleaned and cared for by the class of 1961;

Third, we cheerfully make the following bequests:

Richard Anderson leaves the leadership of "Andy's Gang" (the Zouaves) to any third-year member capable of double timing ten miles.

Jim Atkins leaves his nonchalant manner and graceful form to Carlos Randol.

Pat Boscamp leaves his English book to Richard Christie.

Ronnie Brame leaves Adams Hall to William Ernest Kutzschbach.

Bill Christmas leaves his untiring patience with Allan Cobb to Don Scoggins.

Tono de la Torre leaves his ability to get "Honor Permits" every weekend to Warren Goldsmith.

Bill Foster leaves all his cigarette butts to Robert Burian.

Kirk French leaves his vast knowledge of Solid and Trig to Hollis Walker.

Joe Ganz leaves his ability to sleep through first and second call to Phil Mason.

Johnny Garza takes all his possessions to the grave.

Mike Hale leaves his ability to entertain guests after taps to Charlie Walker.

Gene Hughs leaves his noble ability to "be true" to Binky Edwards.

Olie Losoya leaves his athletic ability to Jimmy Stalarow.

Tony Nieto leaves his ability to play a bugle to Phillip Crawshaw, who needs it badly.

Jim Norman isn't leaving a thing.

Albert Orozco leaves his ability to control the Day Students to Henry Daughtry.

Amando Pena leaves his stripes to Johnny Young—a leader.

Danny Perugini leaves his multi-flavored Lifesavers to Mark McNeel.

Bill Randol leaves his numerous Special Orders to Bruce Marler in Wilson Hall.

Ricky Reeves leaves his diving ability to Mark Barrow.

"Flash" Robinson leaves his incredible inability to pole vault to Rob Haley and Bruce Burney.

Jerry Rogers leaves his perfect conduct record to Ronnie Swain.

Charlie Salerno leaves his bottle of Sun-Tan lotion to Don Scoggins.

Bobby Shaw just leaves.

John Siemens leaves, and the bar in Phelps Hall closes down.

Leo Vasquez leaves his last "But why, Colonel?" to Col. Cole.

JUNIOR McKINNON RIFLES

Commanded by Cadet James Mathieson.

MILITARY INSTRUCTION

We are about to begin major surgery on the M-1 rifle.

The non-enclosure of the M-1 rifle puzzles many.

Capt. Anderson explains the lesson.

The new cadet learns the military salute.

Present arms? ? ?

Let him have his rifle, Anderson!

FIRE!!!

The practice targets.

Col. Cole holds a fire drill.

No, French, you don't shake hands!

PEACOCK-ST. MARY'S U. REVIEW IN HONOR OF COL. STURCHIO

Colonel Sturchio, accompanied by the two color guards, reports front and center.

The 40 mph winds were tough on our color guard. Right, Christie?

The Drum and Bugle Corps passes in review.

Colonel Sturchio is promoted to full colonel prior to his retirement in the Texas State Guard.

The reviewing officers.

FEDERAL INSPECTION

The armory was spotless for the inspection.

The Battalion Commander and the Adjutant amid much brass.

"Yes, we keep the Ammo vault securely locked."

"What is the name of this part, Cadet?"

Colonel Brown inspects Steubing's bugle.

The reviewing officers gather for the parade.

Officers front and center.

The class on the nomenclature of the M-1 rifle was closely inspected.

Colonel Doxey's map reading class was looked over also.

Ricky, whose bad luck it was to be OD, was questioned extensively.

After the inspection there was coffee and cookies for the inspectors, with Colonel Don as the genial host.

TACTICAL PLATOON

The four rifle squads in the different firing positions.

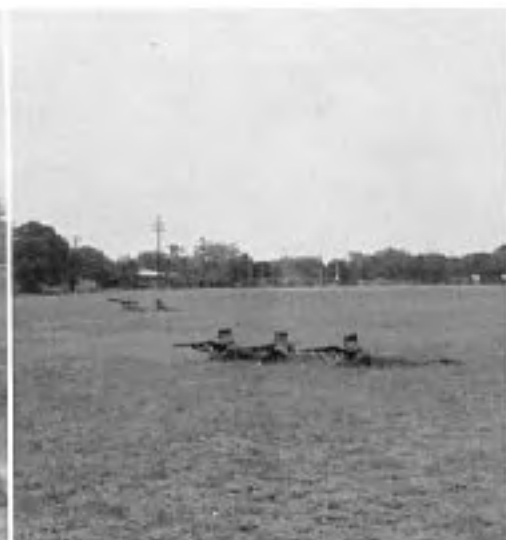

The weapons squad, commanded by Bill Randol, carried two BARs and a rocket launcher.

Lt. Daughtry briefs the platoon before the maneuver.

Woodlawn Lake was the scene of many bloody battles.

The BAR team opens the way, as the rocket launcher covers them.

Practicing the art of camouflage.

RANGE FIRING AT CAMP BULLIS

Mike fires from the sitting position.

"More ammo coming right up, sir."

Down in the pits, the Insoya brothers seem to be having a good time.

Colonel Cole joins the others in the prone position.

Binky cuts loose with the BAR as an interested group watches.

Hard at work as usual, Tim?

"Shucks, fellas, this here rifle don't kick none."

Pat seems to be having trouble with the clip.

After half a day of firing, a hungry group lines up for chow.

"A little more gravy, please."

Randol looks interested in only one thing: food.

Froggy and his boys cleaning their rifles after the firing was completed.

THE FIRST CEREMONIAL DRESS PARADE

The color guard awaits the forming of the battalion.

"The Old Grey Mare"

"B" Company about to pass in review.

The McKinnon Rifles present their salute to the reviewing officer.

The members of the Combat Platoon go through the bayonet drill.

KING ANTONIO PARADE

"I bet this year's Miss Fiesta will be prettier than last year's"

King Antonio XXXVIII and other Fiesta officials arrive.

After the VIPs have arrived, Colonel Donald bids them welcome.

The King then presented the Cavalier Medal to the Battalion Commander.

Sound off!

The Lone Star Company's team of fire-fighting dogs amused everyone.

The St. Mary's University Marching Band was also here to honor the King.

The Combat Platoon threatens the audience with fierce-looking bayonets.

For the grand finale, the Zouaves scale the wall amid colorful smoke and dead enemy soldiers.

King Antonio XXXVIII.

Mrs. Peacock seeks an autograph from the Queen of the Order of the Alamo.

The King leaves the campus after an enjoyable afternoon.

AWARDS DAY

The McKinnon Rifles receive their ribbon before the parade.

"Cadets to be decorated, front and center!"

Captain Brause receives the NDCC ribbon for the superior Cadet MI-4 division.

The General Phelps medal for leadership was awarded to Captain Richard Anderson.

Captain Mike Hale receives The Judge Anderson medal for leadership.

Mr. Joe C. Bettencourt presents his award to Lt. Tom McLaughlin.

Don Scoggins receives the Marksmanship medal for the MI-3 Division.

Colonel Kenny presents Adams the MI-2 Marksmanship medal.

BATTLE OF FLOWERS PARADE

The Battalion Staff and the Drum and Bugle Corps.

"A" Company, commanded by Captain Michael E. Hale.

The Color Guard, commanded by Sergeant Richard Christie.

"B" Company, commanded by Captain Richard Anderson.

PEACOCK KADETS vs. ST. GERARD'S BLUES

The team gathers for a prayer before the game.

Bobby and Lana lead the team on to the field.

I don't think Puchy's going to make it.

Olie Losoya around end, looks like a T.D.

Bill carries, with two good blockers to open the way.

Get him, Ronnie!

PEACOCK KADETS vs. ST. MARY'S INDIANS

Shaw tries a run around right end.

Well?

While the fight is on Leo sneaks away.

O.K., beauties, quit posing and lead us in a cheer.

Looks like a touchdown for St. Mary's.

Half time at last!

CHEERLEADERS

From left to right: Don Scoggins, Donna Peacock, Kirk French, Jean McCurdy, Danny Perugini, Phoebe Allen; Ricky Reeves, Lana Traeger.

To the cheerleaders, those eight people who led us in rousing cheers and accompanied us through the exciting moments of the winning games and the sad moments of the losing ones, we are indebted. To the four beautiful girls who for three years now have worn the green "P" on their sweaters we especially owe a lot. To all of you we can only say "Thanks; your job was well done."

"B" FOOTBALL TEAM

Over the line.

Come on, Coach, let me play a little!

"C" FOOTBALL TEAM

From left to right, TOP ROW: Lt. Garcia, Coach; Thompson, Mgr.; Cutrer, Moore, Edwards F., Ramon J., Fredrick, Sharpton, Goodenow, Browning, Hensen, Butler B., Mgr. MIDDLE ROW: Kerr Jennings, Rakes, Foskette, Mathieson, Hawthorne, Zuber, Woods M., Pierce. BOTTOM ROW: Powell, Ramon R., Cavazos, Butler R., Youngblood, Burchfield, Goodlett, Douglas.

Bring him down!

All right, boys, get in there and do something!

VARSITY BASKETBALL

From left to right, STANDING: Lt. Middleton, Coach; Christmas, Mgr.; Hughs; Peragini; Campbell; McNutt; Foster, W.; Norman; Hunter; French, K. SITTING: Hyslop, A.; Bishop; Shaw; Loyosa, O.; Peña; Reeves.

Sink it, Losoya!

Gene wrestles for the ball.

Scramble!

Well, Snokie, do something!

Dancing the cha-cha at the Woodlawn gym.

Will she, or won't she?

"B" BASKETBALL

STANDING: Alpert, G., Mgr.; Plummer; Hudson, W.; Dublin; Reed; Hyslop, J.; Barrier; Ford;
Lt. Daughtry, Coach. SITTING: Czawshaw; Martinez; Waggoner; Swain; Gonzalez; Burke.

Daughtrey, Coach; Major Snowden, Coach. BOTTOM ROW: Burian; Foster, W.; Brame; Losoya, O.; Bemish; Randol, W.; Hale, M.; Harvey, J.; Butler, B.; Ford; Woodruff.

Brame, Bemish, Ford, Culpepper, Burian, Haley, Adams; these boys placed in the STAL meet and traveled to Austin for the District Meet.

Jerry Culpepper set a new record for the STAL in the discus throw.

Adams is ready,

and there's the hand-off.

Go ahead, Losoya; it won't bite,

What's-a-matter, Tim, too many fags?

Looks like a pro-doesn't he?

Hans!

"B" TEAM TRACK

"B" AND "C" TRACK MEET

Tommy's running a close second.

Daughtry's spectacular form is demonstrated here.

Ben's making like a bird again!

It's going to catch, Hunt!

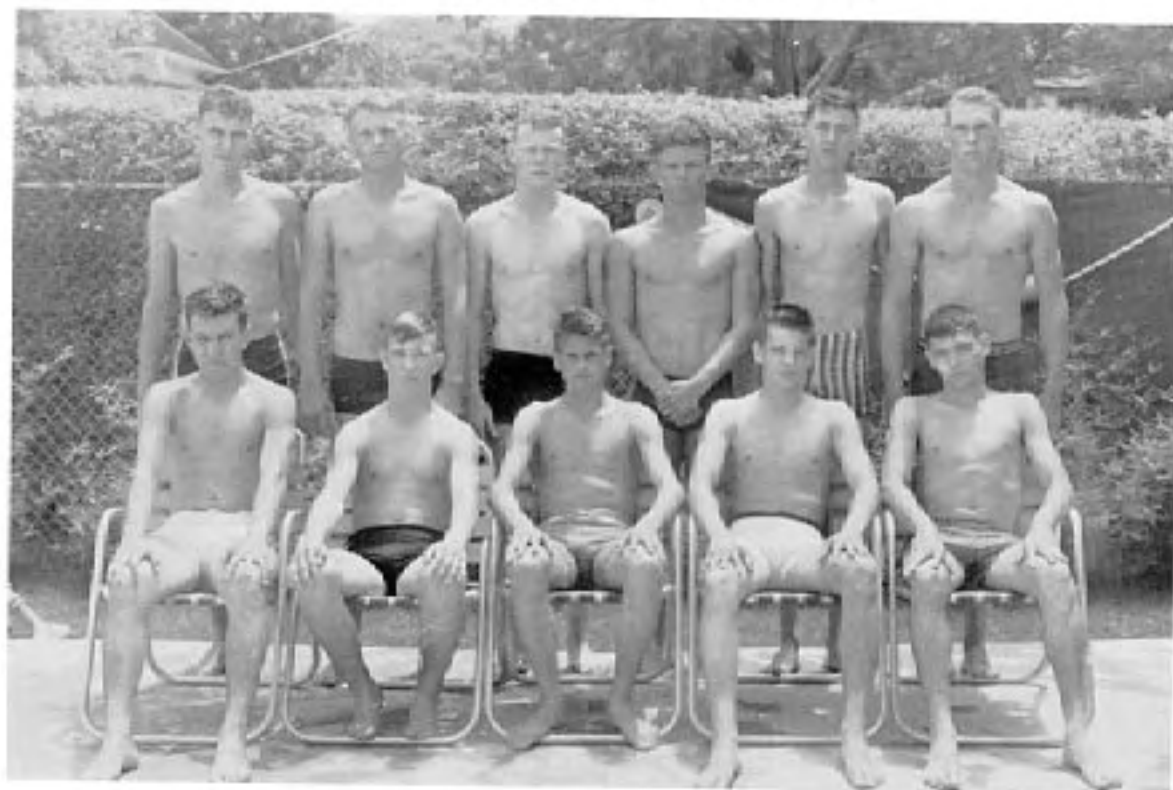

That's cutting it pretty close, Cutrer!

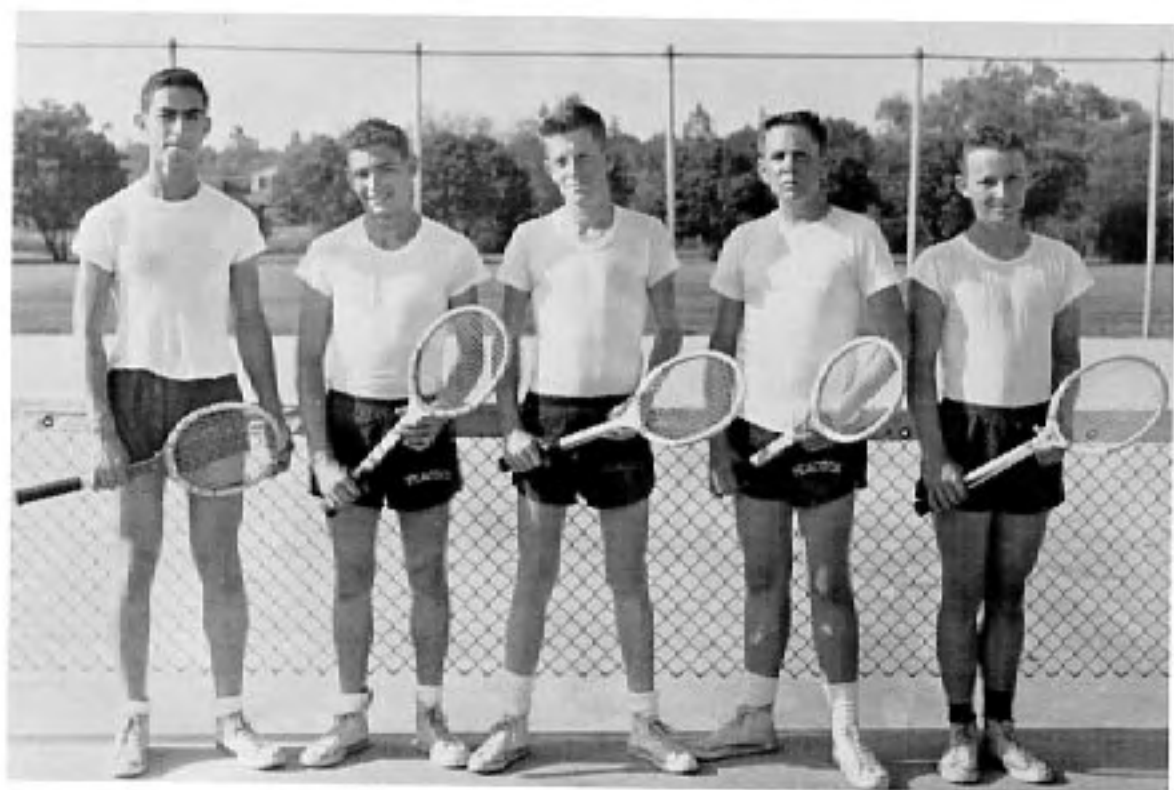

Winner Pietz displays his ribbons.

SWIMMING TEAM

STANDING, from left to right: Mason; Hughs; Rogers; Reeves; Johnson; Harvey, J. BOTTOM ROW: Randol, C.; Hunt, C.; Bishop; Robertson, D.; French, K.

ACTIVITY GROUPS

Activity "A", next year's varsity football players.

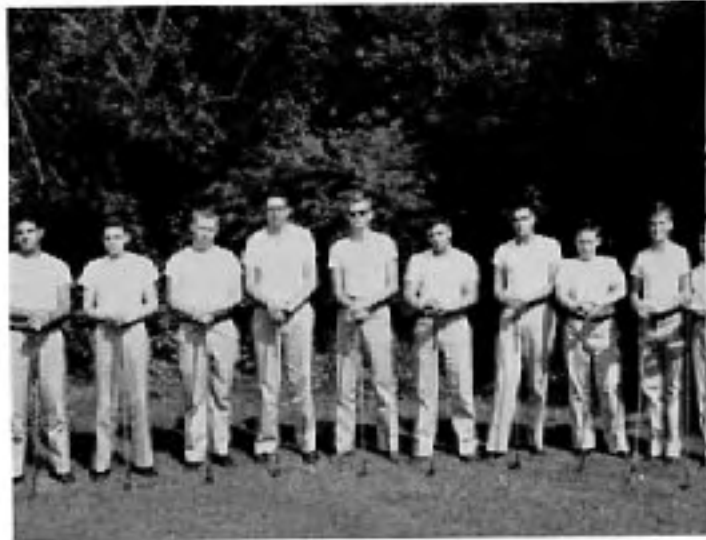

The weight-lifting squad, our local supermen.

The junior basketball group.

The racketeers.

The golfers

An abstract graphic design featuring several diamond shapes. A large, solid dark grey diamond is positioned at the bottom center, containing the word "ACTIVITIES" in white, bold, sans-serif capital letters. Above it, a large, thin black outline of a diamond is centered. To the left of this large outline, two smaller solid black diamonds are stacked vertically. To the right, a diamond is filled with a dense, stippled or textured pattern. A light grey diamond is also visible in the background, partially overlapping the large central outline. The overall composition is minimalist and geometric.

ACTIVITIES

WESTERN DANCE

It's a handslappin,' footstompin' affair.

Jean McCurdy leads the Bunny Hop.

From out west.

From outer space.

Smiley's gang.

What's wrong, Danny, no Lana?

STUDENT COUNCIL INDUCTION

We were honored by a guest speaker.

Brace also spoke.

The whole corps was present for the event.

Then, while the commandment read the names.

The headmaster presented them with their red shoulder tabs.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Members, left to right: Nicholas; Driscoll; Hale, M.; Brame, President; Lt. Murphy, Sponsor; Reeves; Pena; Gancz; Scoggins.

AMERICAN LEGION DECLAMATION CONTEST

WINNERS: Mike Gallagher, first place; Steve Driscoll, second place; Pat Boscamp, third place.
Cadets de la Torre and Woods, C., also participated.

VETERANS DAY

The band is formed

before leaving for the Veteran's Day Parade downtown.

In a short ceremony,

the Cadet Corps honored war veterans.

Col. Hoch was the speaker of the day.

At the conclusion, taps was sounded.

BARRACK BANNERS

School enthusiasm ran high before the T.M.I. game. Each barrack make a poster depicting their wishes as to the outcome of the game, with Johnston, North, and Birkhead tying for first place.

FOOTBALL DANCE

The members of the football team were recognized by Maj. Snowden.

The team likewise showed their appreciation of the coach.

The bulbs flashed for the cheerleaders also.

Some of the lettermen.

We were entertained by a wonderful orchestra.

And, everyone danced.

CHRISTMAS SEASON

The Cadet Carolers revived the Christmas spirit with song.

They sang carols at Col. Wesley's home.

An enormous amount of food was present at the Johnston-Mack party.

A tree helped bring Christmas to Wilson Hall.

At the Adams Hall party, the boys were ready, willing, and certainly able.

MID-TERM DANCE

THE MILITARY BALL WAS HELD IN HONOR OF THE CADET OFFICERS

Wednesday night officers' meeting?

That's MY date, Anderson!

SLAVE DAY

What am I bid for this healthy slave?

I'll be extravagant . . . 10 cents!

Bill looks as if he would like to abolish slavery.

Is he really worth $25.00?

The slaves are put to good use. Coffee, anyone?

Lusoya seems to enjoy Capt. Hale's services.

Even the Battalion Commander is put to work.

Slaves Salerno and de la Torre with their respective masters.

PROJECTIONISTS' CLUB

STUDENT COUNCIL

TALENT SHOW

Viva la Brigitte!

Cherry Pie, mmmmm so good,
sing McNeel and Edwards.

Two guitars and a wash tub bass,
with Mason, Parsons, and Zuber.

Our talented cadets (?)

GYMKHANA

The eighth graders celebrate their expected victory.

They're catching up, Daughtry!

Arriba! Arriba!

Looks like Danny's ahead in the 100!

Jerry tackles the first obstacle.

Don't drop that egg, Tony!

The victorious seniors.

In the battle royal, Kunz and Andy approach each other menacingly.

What, me worry?

While a furious combat is taking place, Losoya fights his shadow in the background.

Weiss accepts the cup for the eighth grade, winners of the Junior division.

Tim Bemish, Senior Class President, receives the award for his class.

SPRING DANCE

Arthur Murray and friend.

Peek-a-Boo, Olie!

Wake up, Joe!

Watch those stories, Young.

SENIOR PARTY AT FORT SAM HOUSTON OFFICER'S CLUB

The table of hosts and guests of honor.

There's more to having fun than girls.

With good music, there was dancing by all.

Smile, Lieutenant, the chicken wasn't that bad.

Where's your date, Bobby?

Has anybody seen Schmaltsy?

JUNIOR PARTY

Charlie and Smoky try the swing dance.

Tiny, the school clown.

The barbecued chicken was good.

Just relaxing after the meal.

Dancing in dreamland.

EIGHTH GRADE PARTY

Who's your friend, Baker? *

Garza and date sit one out.

"As I was saying . . ."

Keep your distance, Joe!

The stags confined themselves to the buffet table.

The gathering of the clan

Was she really Cinderella?

7th GRADE PARTY IN THE TEEN-AGE ROOM

ecstasy.

ecstasy.

and more ecstasy.

110 The gang poses for a shot.

Cobb and the boys live it up.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB PARTY AT OAK HILLS COUNTRY CLUB

What's wrong, Bill, the water too cold?

I guess Gene didn't catch the joke.

Burian looks sad—who stole his date?

Cloud 9.

Come on, Charlie, she's not that bad.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

What was that, Bill?

We'll posed, Gance!

... and all this to eat too.

112 Looks like the Juniors can take care of themselves.

Junior smiles—and Senior reservedness.

SENIOR PARTIES

Mrs. Peacock serves

while the seniors fill up.

What have you got there, men?

Enjoying Colonel Don's swim party, Perugini?

You seem to be pondering something, Christmas.

Having fun, Tim?

GARDEN PARTY

The faculty greets cadets, parents, and friends.

Anyone thirsty?

It was a grand night for dancing,

but others sat it out.

Sold another ticket, coach?

The winner? Cavazos!

GRADUATION PARADE

The seniors come forward, and Colonel Cole presents the military training certificates.

The undergraduates pass in review.

The seniors enjoy reviewing the corps,

and so do the parents.

CLOSING EXERCISES

The seniors follow the underclassmen in the Processional

Commencement Exercises are held under the elms in front of Johnston Hall

Colonel Wesley Peacock presents diplomas to the graduates.

Colonel Cole presents NDCC Citation Certificates to the top cadets in each of the Military Science classes.

Mr. Joe Salek presents medal to winner of Declamation Contest.

Colonel Richardson awards his annual medal to Ronald Brame for excellence in scholarship and athletics.

Parents, relatives, friends and visitors remain on campus and watch our Final Lowering of the Flag ceremony.

Underclassmen and others go down the line and bid us adieu, farewell and good luck!

And so another KADET comes to an end.

It's time to close the door on this year, but we can do it with a smile, for we know our memories can be revived each time we open this book. Open it often—today, tomorrow, twenty-five years from now. And may we realize that these . . . perhaps "the best years" . . . have also been the formative years, the pattern for our lives.

To the Seniors—Good luck, Congratulations, and so long.

To those of you who are left—Keep on making these "the best years of your lives."
