DEDICATION

THIS VOLUME of illustrated chronicles, representing our school and its life for the 1944-45 session, is reverently dedicated to the memory of the Academy's founder, Professor Wesley Peacock, Sr.

Although the Master Teacher called Professor Peacock in his seventy-fourth year, his half-century of moral, mental and physical guidance to thousands of Peacock cadets ("old boys") remains a potent force in the institution's sphere of influence.

May all future cadets, even as we who are now within the Corps, appreciate this value: Peacock Military Academy's aims and life are truly "the lengthened shadow" of its builder.

What nobler employment, or more valuable to the state, than that of the man who instructs the rising generation?—Cicero.

It is an axiom in political science that unless a people are educated and enlightened it is idle to expect the continuance of civil liberty or the capacity for self-government.—Texas Declaration of Independence, March 2, 1836.
