DEDICATION

Lt. Colonel Howard R. Adams

We dedicate this Annual to one of the men who has been of greatest personal help to most of us during our current session at the Academy,—truly a friend of every cadet. It is he, too, who has helped us in setting forth this record by pictures of our life at Peacock during the school year 1951-52.

Herein also is shown our achievements in sports, our physical, academic, military, and personal development. All these have been made possible by our excellent teachers, counselors, coaches, and, chiefly, our friends. Friendships, formed and kept, are undoubtedly one of our greatest assets attained.

Therefore, we are happy to dedicate this 1952 Yearbook with fondest appreciation to our friend, Lieutenant Colonel HOWARD R. ADAMS.

THE CORPS

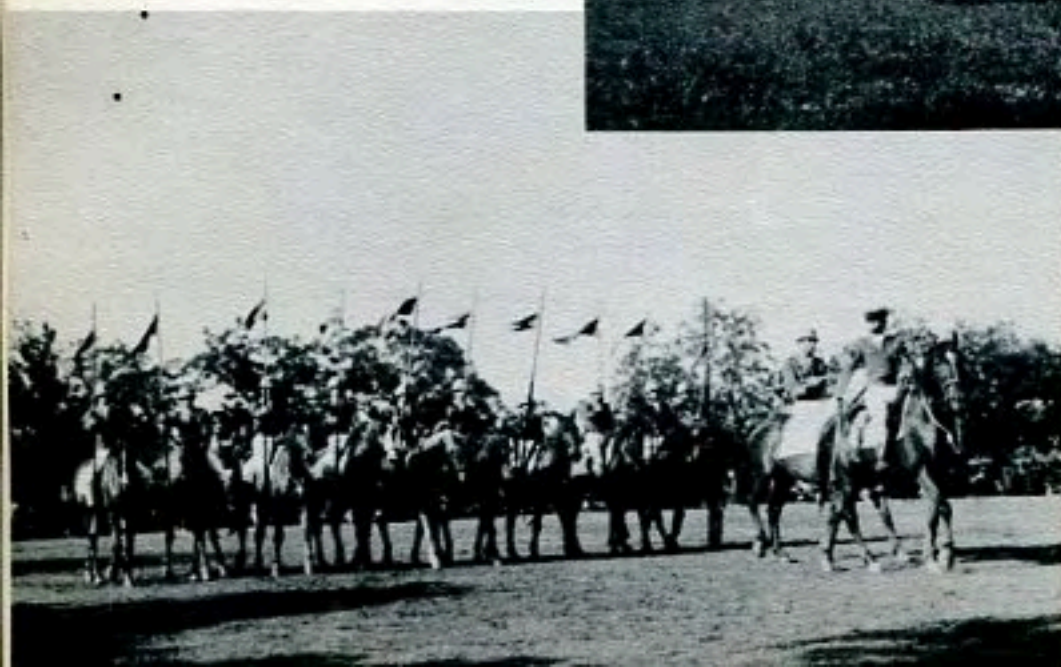

On the pages that follow you will see the pictures and read the story of our battalion of cadets, the infantry companies, the drum and bugle corps, and the cavalry detachment. We can be sure we shall not soon forget what we have learned in the way of self-discipline and leadership.

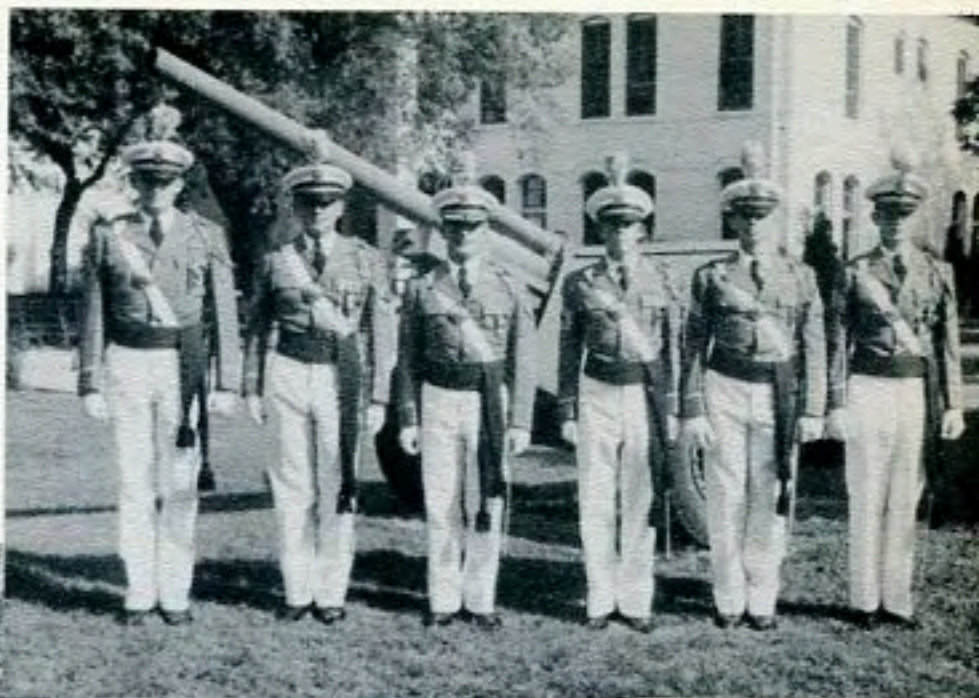

Battalion Parade Time . . .

During April and May, on Sunday afternoons, our Infantry companies and Cavalry detachment were kept busy with Full Dress Parades.

Cadet Commissioned Officers . . .

Lt. Orcutt, Capt. Gonzalez,
1st Capt. Houston,
Lt. Wall, Capt. Hyatt,
Capt. Luce.

The Honor Guard . . .

forms for participation in annual Armistice Day Parade.

The Battalion . . .

in a practice ceremony executes "Escort to the Colors."

DRUM & BUGLE CORPS. Our indispensable Field Music.

Top: Whittfield, Miguel, Cook D., Parker. 4th Row: Crouch, Howells O., Berleth, Whipple, Summers. 3rd Row: Johnson W., Thomas, Powell, Spalding, Cook R. 2nd Row: Childers, Munguia, Noriega, Aguilar, Rodarte. Bottom: Johnson R., Drum Major; Doty D., Ladizinsky, Reagan, Poteet, Elizondo.

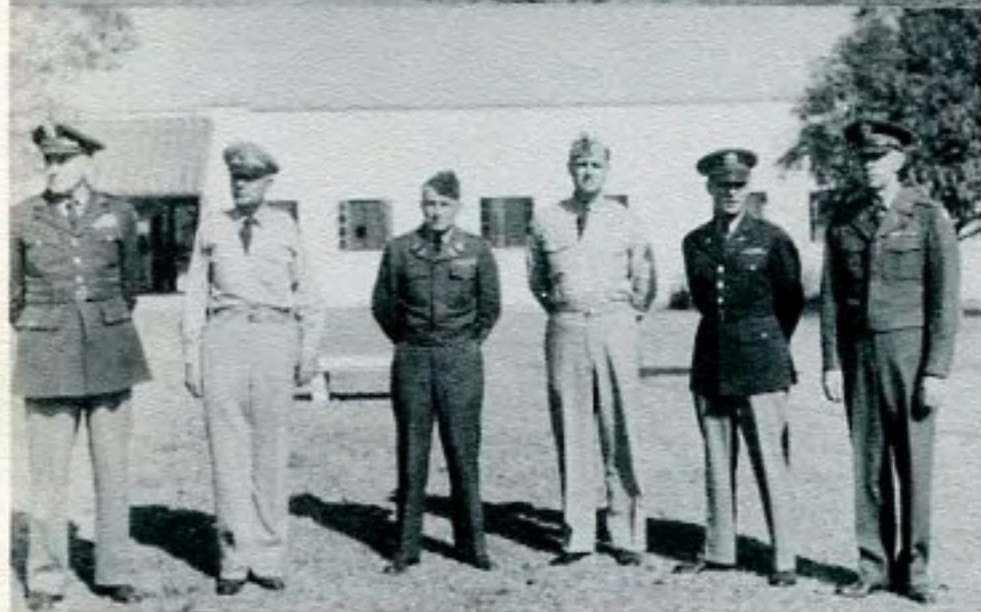

McKinnon Rifles . . .

Our crack drill platoon, perfectionists in close order maneuvers.
Capt. Jerry Houston, commanding.

GENERAL MILTON VISITS THE ACADEMY

Maj. General Hugh M. Milton, Executive for Reserves and R.O.T.C. affairs, Wash., D. C.; Col. Richardson, Col. Wilder, Col. Thiesen, Col. Bacharach, and Col. Donald Peacock.

The General

... addresses us following his informal inspection.

ANNUAL GOVERNMENT INSPECTION

Combat Platoon . .

. . with Field Equipment

Performs for Visiting Officers and undergoes a successful critique.

ANNUAL GOVERNMENT INSPECTION

Lt. Col. V. V. Laughlin interrogates unit commanders; observes the sighting and aiming drill instruction.

A critique is given the First Aid Class, and a junior group demonstrates a conditioning game.

ANNUAL GOVERNMENT INSPECTION

Maj. F. R. Gehring assists in the inspection under arms and of quarters.

We also demonstrate creeping, crawling, and calisthenics.

ANNUAL GOVERNMENT INSPECTION

Inspecting Officers Colonel Laughlin and Gehring (on ends) with Col. Donald Peacock, Col. Thiesen, Col. Richardson, and Col. Cole.

We assemble for Dress Parade, receive the colors, and march to the Parade Ground.

Officers Front and Center.

McKinnon Rifles render the King's Salute.

ANNUAL GOVERNMENT INSPECTION

The Zouaves perform trick manual of arms on the platform.

McKinnon Rifles do the "marching manual."

Lancers gallop by at the "charge."

Junior platoon exhibit tandem relay race.

The Monkey Drillers in their pyramid ride.

WEAPONS INSTRUCTION

The sergeants demonstrate to us the nomenclature and use of various infantry weapons.

WEAPONS INSTRUCTION

With the aid of graphic charts, a P.A. system, and by dividing us up into small groups, we learn the vital parts of machine guns, automatic rifles, and rocket launchers.

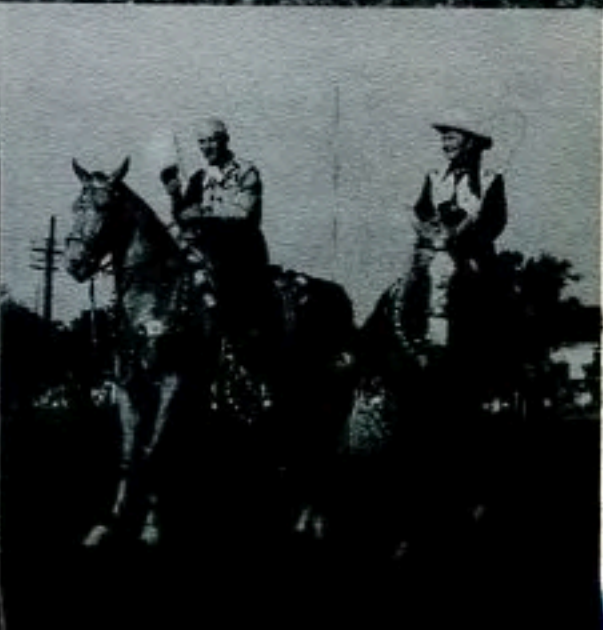

KING'S PARADE

Our big day during San Antonio's Fiesta Week celebration. We hold a parade ceremony and exhibitions for King Antonio and other officials. "Eyes Right" to His Majesty!

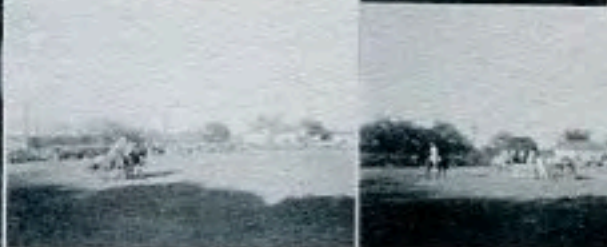

KING'S PARADE

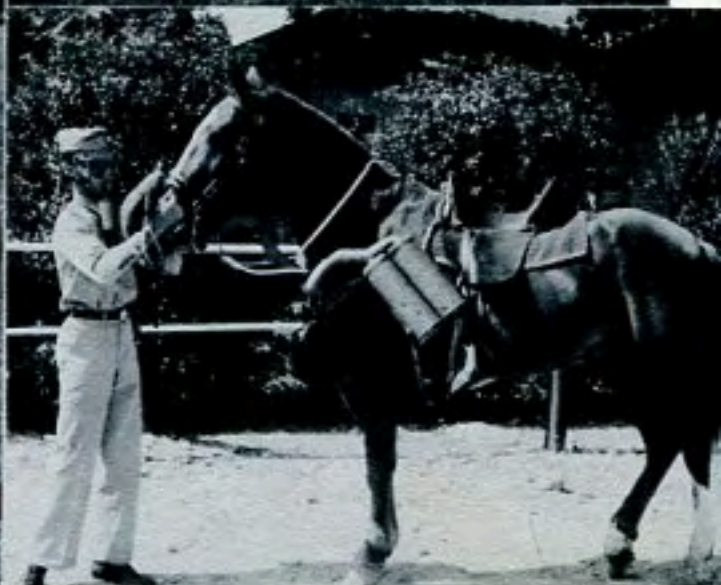

The King presents the Cavalier medal to Captain Houston. Mr. Bickett introduces Mr. Horton's palominos and their silver trappings.

FIELD DAY

Adjutant General Berry reviews the troops. Major General Phelps awards the Birkhead and Phelps medals to Captains Houston and Gonzalez.

FIELD DAY

After various contests and drills, we see the famed Border Collies, owned by Mr. Peterson of Kerrville, corral sheep, ducks, and a rooster.

BATTLE OF FLOWERS PARADE

We march in Texas' biggest and most spectacular parade.

Drum & Bugle Corps sets the pace.

Our Infantry companies follow.

Monkey Drill Team stands while marching throughout the three-mile route.

ATHLETICS

This year our athletic program has proved a great benefit to most of the students in the Corps. To many who came lacking in self-confidence and physical courage, the training and experience of competition in major and minor sports have served as corrective measures to "set them on their feet."

ACTIVITIES

In this, our third year of Student Council activity, we have endeavored to make our free hours on the campus more enjoyable and more worth-while. Our democratic representation from each of the academic classes, regardless of age or number of students, has made considerable progress toward the moulding of good citizens who are to take an active part in the government of their country.
