CAMERA CLUB

Left to right: Maxwell, Anderson, R.; Bryant, Thompson, M.; French, Hemphill, Gambaou.

These cadets were a great help in putting out our '56 KADET. They were present at almost all the school functions with their cameras, and we of the Annual Staff thank them for their cooperation.

PROJECTIONISTS

Left to right: Erdman, Kenney, Taylor, Gretzer, Abel, Bostick.

This group of boys was of service to the school by showing all the movies in the auditorium every Friday and Saturday night, and also by showing educational and military films when they were needed.

THE MCKINNON RIFLES

The McKinnon Rifles, consisting of fifty cadets and commanded by Capt. James W. Ingram, with Lt. Jerry A. Sears as executive officer and Sgt. C. W. Hoffmann as guidon carrier, upheld its reputation this year of being one of the best-drilled teams in this area. These cadets were chosen from approximately eighty well-drilled cadets who tried out for the team, so you can see that one must be outstanding to be a member of the McKinnon Rifles.

THE ZOUAVES

*The ambition of almost every cadet who comes to Peacock is to be someday a Zouave. To be a member of this team, a cadet must be not only good in drill, but he must also be physically capable of maintaining the twice-normal marching cadence and enduring the strenuous wall-scaling, which this team is built around. Team Captain L. B. Johnson and his Zouaves of 1956 met and passed these requirements, and became one of the best teams Peacock has known.

THE JUNIOR MCKS.

Consisting of cadets from the seventh to the ninth grades who someday wish to be members of the Senior McKinnon Rifles, this drill team, commanded by Cpl. Robert Bostick and sponsored by First Lieutenant Dan Taylor, put on such marvelous performances that there is no doubt in our minds that the McKinnon Rifles in future years will be as great as this year's team.

Practicing for a coming parade.

THE COMBAT PLATOON

The function of this unit is to put on exhibitions of combat tactics and maneuvers. Many fine performances were put on by these boys, who were instructed and led by Capt. Paul Ausmus and Lt. Don Gretzer and sponsored by Maj. John R. Moore, Assistant P.M.S.&T. Much credit should be given to these fine leaders.

MONKEY DRILL TEAM

The highlight of any dress parade comes when the Monkey Drill Team comes on the field to do its skilled acrobatic riding. Crowds have applauded this team from as far away as Monterrey, Mexico. Team captain Darwin Harris is to be commended for producing such a fine group of riders as this year's team is.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

THE Commencement Exercises mark the end of another school year, and also the end of our "Calendar of Events" section.

As always, the Commencement Exercises were very colorful this year. The highlight was a Declamation Contest among three seniors—Johnson, Gretzer, and Heath. Heath was the winner. The Col. Richardson Award went to the Valedictorian, Fred Rigby; the Col. Adams Award and the Bausch & Lomb Honorary Science Award were won by Salutatorian Gerald Sears; and the Moore Spanish Award was given to Bob Scoggins, a freshman.

The ceremony was terminated by the awarding of diplomas to the seniors, who will go their respective ways. We wish all of them the best of luck!

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF '56

PAUL D. AUSMUS leaves Wilson Hall to Glen Barnard, and wishes him luck.

JIM TODD BOGGS leaves his love of football camp to next year's team.

"MONKEY" DECASTRO leaves his lightning speed to Tommy Wallace.

CHARLIE DELEON leaves his mambo technique to Lt. Earl Lacy.

HECTOR DEL VALLE leaves his ability to make witty remarks in the Mess Hall and his knowledge of porcupine hunting to Col. Donald Peacock.

ROBERT FRUCHT leaves his Elvis Presley records to Dick Ostos.

JOE GOUGH leaves his use of courtesy to Gary Butler.

"LONG TALL MERLY" GRANTHAM leaves, and the school loses a ladder.

"MOSES" GRETZER leaves his extensive vocabulary of yiddish and his ability to gain vast amounts of money to Bernie Young.

"WILD BILL" HADASH leaves his traveling experiences and vast knowledge of the earth to Maj. John R. Moore.

JIMMY HEATH leaves his chewing gum to Miss Dorothy Peacock.

CHARLES HURST leaves his muscular build to Breckenridge Porter.

JAMES INGRAM leaves his long, beautiful hair and self-imposed title of "The Best-Looking Boy at Peacock" to C. W. Hoffmann.

L. B. JOHNSON leaves his love of Birkhead Hall to Darwin Harris.

"HOSENOSE" LEWIS leaves his nose to Charles Pugh.

"BIG LES" REAGAN leaves his tool box to Phil Dunlap.

FREDDY RIGBY leaves his solemn and serious face to Jules Silvers.

"BANANA NOSE" SALVO leaves his ambition to lead a revolution in Nicaragua to A. C. Hymer.

"WIMPY" SEAGO leaves his love of English literature to Dan Fiveash.

JERRY "THE SPECIAL ORDER KID" SEARS leaves his ability to get campused when "he wasn't going to town anyhow" to Robert Adam.

J. D. SMITH leaves his part in "Oklahoma" to Julio Luzardo.

"ALL-AMERICAN" DAN TAYLOR leaves his nickname to Richard Lewis.

LEE WILSON gives the phone back to North Hall.
