RE: Peacock Centennial Celebration Dress Ball

Dear Ken:

On Saturday, August 6, 1994, commencing at 7:30 o'clock P.M., at the Rivercenter Marriott Hotel in San Antonio, the Peacock Family and Alumni and Former Students of Peacock Military Academy will hold the Peacock Centennial Celebration Dress Ball, commemorating the 100th anniversary of the founding of Peacock Military Academy.

Although you should be receiving complete information concerning all the activities planned for that week-end in the very near future, I want to extend my personal invitation for you to attend this once in a lifetime event.

Although reminiscent of the officer balls we attended at Peacock, the Centennial Celebration Dress Ball promises to be a military extravaganza unlike any you will have ever witnessed.

Enclosed is a program of the planned events. The general theme of the Dress Ball is the symbolic reactivation of the Peacock Corps of Cadets, in its current embodiment, the Peacock Alumni Association, after a 21-year hiatus.

The Dress Ball will be a black tie (optional) affair. Although most of the guests can be expected to wear civilian formal attire, if you have a military dress uniform (any armed forces branch or military organization, any period), you are encouraged to wear it.

My personal belief is that the Centennial Celebration Dress Ball truly will be a once in a lifetime event; the one you will want to attend even if you have not attended Alumni Association functions in the past and have no plans to attend in the future. I very much hope that you will begin making plans now to attend.

Finally, if you have not yet ordered your copy of Donna Peacock's book, Parade Rest, Book Two, do not procrastinate another moment. It is a marvelous, heartwarming story of "cadet life" at Peacock between 1941 and 1973. Page after page will evoke fond memories and chuckles. Be forewarned, however, the narrative describing the final graduation ceremony on May 26, 1973, will bring tears to your eyes. Contact the Alumni Association office to place your order.

Hoping to hear from or see you soon, I remain

Very truly yours,
